President's Message

On behalf of Saskatchewan Command of The Royal Canadian Legion I would like to thank everyone that has contributed to this, our fourth edition of the Military Service Recognition Book.

These books are dedicated to the men and women who have served Canada and or are still serving to give us our freedom that we enjoy today.

I would also like to thank the Branches and the many individuals that have contributed material on service men and women that make these books possible to distribute. We hope that this same dedication carries on for the editions that will follow this one.

We would also like to thank the individuals and businesses for their most generous donations towards the publishing of these books. Thanks also goes to Fenety Marketing Services for making all this possible.

These publications are distributed to schools, libraries and many community centres as resource reference material and which become a great learning tool of Remembrance! This ensures that our Veterans will never be forgotten!

I would also like to thank the Saskatchewan Command Legion office staff for the countless hours of assembling and proofreading to bring it all together for the publisher.

Thank you.

Dominion President's Message

I am indeed honoured that Saskatchewan Command has asked me to provide a brief forward to this Military Service Recognition Book. As a native of Saskatchewan I am most proud of the military history of our province and the people who have served and are serving today.

In this book, the fourth of its kind and the fifth published by Fenety Marketing Services for The Royal Canadian Legion in Saskatchewan, you will find the faces of those from this province who have served this great nation of Canada in its armed forces. Many of them made the supreme sacrifice during their periods of service while some of them came home and went on to be the leaders in our communities and province. They built our province with the same dedication and effort they gave to serving our country. Whatever their distinction, we owe them a debt of gratitude that cannot be repaid. In this publication we pay tribute to them by way of ensuring that they are not forgotten.

In producing this book Saskatchewan Command has lived up to the aims and objects of The Royal Canadian Legion. Those who have served or are serving their nation in times of war and peace will never be forgotten because they will live on in the pages of this book. It is a tribute to them and their service to Canada. It is a tribute that is well deserved.

As you leaf through these pages and look at the youthful expressions of those who served to make Canada a better place for us to live I would ask you to remember them, just as we have in The Royal Canadian Legion.

Patricia (Pat) Varga

Message from the Premier of Saskatchewan

On behalf of the Government of Saskatchewan, it is my distinct honour to provide greetings for the 4th Annual Military Service Recognition Book.

The people of Saskatchewan are profoundly grateful to our current service personnel and Veterans for their courage and sacrifice in defense of our country and those unable to defend themselves.

This publication is a great resource for our youth and all those interested in learning more about military history and the immense contributions of our Canadian Armed Forces to protect the freedoms we cherish as Canadians.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped to make this publication possible, including the family members of the servicemen and women profiled in this book. Your support helps the Legion to continue to fulfill its role as the “Keepers of Remembrance” as well as sustain many ongoing community activities for Saskatchewan’s Veterans and their dependants.

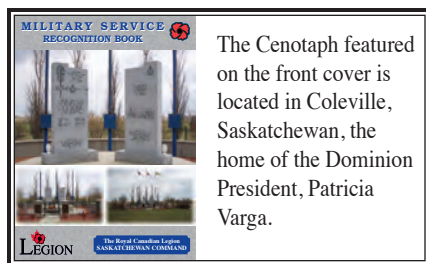

By remembering the service and sacrifice of our Veterans, we honour the legacy of peace and freedom that they gave so selflessly.

Lest us never forget.

On behalf of the citizens and City Council of Yorkton, it is with great honour that I extend my gratitude and appreciation to the Veterans of our great country.

With the spectre of war and oppression so far away from Canada, many people take our military people for granted. The sacrifices that have been made and are continuing today deserve recognition, appreciation and the promise that we will never forget their efforts.
With my father having served in the forces I have a definite respect for our Veterans but I believe I speak for all when I say Thank You and God Bless.

PORTER, Jack

WWII

Jack was born in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, in 1908. He joined the 13th Field Regiment RCA 44th and 78th Battery and landed on the beaches of Normandy on D-Day and had to jump off a landing craft into 10-12 feet of water, as they couldn't get the craft any closer to the Juno shore because of the obstacles and mines that the Germans had planted in the water. Jack was a signaller and had to lay telephone lines and set up radio communications systems, always being in the front lines regardless of weather or dangerous conditions. It was during this time that Jack was captured while his crew of five were laying out telephone lines that the Germans just popped up from nowhere and took them prisoners, but shot the chap that was helping Jack roll out the spool of wire, the poor chap only lived for about four hours. The Germans were waiting until dark and ordered Jack and his crew to follow them, marching for two hours to camp spending eight months in different camps. They were liberated by General Patton and he went to England and was hospitalized for one month and then went home to Canada. Jack had been a member of the Kinistino Branch #129 of The Royal Canadian Legion for 50 years before he passed away in 1995.

TAYLOR, Reginald George “Reg”

WWII

Reg joined the Royal Canadian Air Force in October 1942 in Regina and was discharged in October 1945 in Regina. He took his basic training in Brandon, Manitoba, and was sent to #2 Construction and maintenance unit in Winnipeg, covering most air bases in Manitoba. Then he went to Souris, where he worked on a runway repair crew and was hit in the small of the back with a shovel handle, which sent him to Deer Lodge hospital for three weeks. There was a big drive for construction workers in the Yukon and he was sent there for about four months and then to Whitehorse until his discharge two years later. Upon his return to civilian life, he rented a half-section of land and worked for his dad. He also bought a large spray-painting outfit with his brother and he went painting. In January, he went to Vancouver and got a job painting veterans' houses and got married on April 2, 1947 to Edna Verboom, and did jobs for farmers in Alberta and Saskatchewan until 1950, when he came home and worked for his dad until he took over the farm in 1964. Reg's back bothered him most of his life after he left the Royal Canadian Air Force. He applied for a pension but was refused.

TAYLOR, William

WWII

William was born in Nottingham, Saskatchewan, in 1920. He enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force training in several bases in Canada, performing all of his duties with courage and honour, and was due a promotion at the time of his death in 1944, when he was granted the title of Pilot Officer. On the 50th anniversary of the plane crash when William and his crew lost their lives, two of his sisters, a brother and a niece, along with an English family who had lost a brother, travelled to the French burial site. In the quiet little village of Hilsenhiem, the Steydli families had lovingly maintained the graves of these fallen airmen all through the years. In a beautiful section of the cemetery, the graves were side by side. The greeting these French families gave the visitors from Canada and England has created a wonderful and enduring friendship. Sometimes good can flow from otherwise very sad situations.

TERRY, Herbert Leroy

WWII

Herbert was born in Marmara, Ontario, in 1901. He joined the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps serving in Canada. He passed away in 1975.

TERRY, Leroy Charles

WWII

Leroy was born in Kalispell, Montana, in 1923. He joined the 101st Battery “C” Troop, 8th Light Anti-Aircraft Regiment RCA and served in Canada and England. He has been a member of the Nipawin Branch #120 of The Royal Canadian Legion for 59 years.

Mayor

If you are looking for a place to establish or expand your business, you have come to the right place! Saskatoon is a national leader in economic growth. Our prosperity is assured through some of the richest resources in the world, our agricultural strength and our position as the largest city in Saskatchewan. We welcome more businesses, and more skilled workers, to meet the growing demand.

Perhaps, though, you are a visitor just passing through or attending one of our many conventions. My sincerest wish is that you will want to return again soon.

To my fellow residents of Saskatoon, I urge you to always be passionate about our city. This is not a place of "either-or." Saskatoon is all of us, from all walks of life and with all points of view. It is a place to celebrate - and to proudly call our home.

In Flanders Fields

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

Forget Them Not

We've lined their boots all in a row,
 And amongst them stand,
 The saddest scene I'll ever know,
 Goodbye dear friend, goodbye!
 Through mud and rain and battle blows,
 We cried cursed prayers,
 On blood-soaked clothes;
 And from that wound his life did flow,
 Please stay we begged, please stay!
 There is a time that soldiers know,
 When so many die,
 That the pain and woe,
 Is too much for the mind to hold;
 Roll on your drums, roll on!
 A band of brothers stand in their rows;
 The empty boots still,
 Where a life did grow,
 Our friends have gone, no more to know;
 Remember them always, remember!

WE REMEMBER.

YOUR SASKATCHEWAN PARTY MLAS

We must remember the sacrifice of those Canadian lives lost in conflicts around the world - or it will be meaningless. They died for us, for their homes and families and friends, for a collection of traditions they cherished and a future they believed in; they died for Canada. The meaning of their sacrifice rests with our collective national consciousness; our future is their monument.

Let us never forget

We support our Canadian Armed Forces
