President's Message

On behalf of Saskatchewan Command of The Royal Canadian Legion, I bring you greetings and best wishes.

It is my pleasure to introduce you to the sixth edition of the Military Service Recognition Book. We are indeed proud of the service and sacrifice that our Veterans past and present, and our now serving military personnel, have given and continue to give, to Canada and other countries throughout the world.

We appreciate that families, relatives, Legion branches, schools and individuals have forwarded these submissions and hope that others will continue to follow. Submission forms are available at your local Legion branches, the Saskatchewan Command office in Regina and online at www.sasklegion.ca.

We are fortunate to have Fenety Marketing Services continuing to produce these fine books on our behalf, and we thank all individuals, businesses and organizations that have generously made donations when canvassed.

The history that is contained within these books is not just that of the individuals, but that of the whole of this great country, as well. As intended, this book continues to be in place for the general public and is available in schools, libraries, educational facilities and community centres throughout our province. It is also available on our website for viewing and downloading at www.sasklegion.ca.

Enjoy this most recent addition of our Military Service Recognition books, and at every opportunity, may we "all" continue to show our respect and gratitude to our veterans and our current serving military personnel.

Message from the Premier of Saskatchewan

On behalf of the Government of Saskatchewan, it is my distinct honour to provide greetings for the 6th Annual Military Service Recognition Book.

The people of Saskatchewan are profoundly grateful to our current service personnel and Veterans for their courage and sacrifice in defence of our country and those unable to defend themselves.

This publication is a great resource for our youth and all those interested in learning more about military history and the immense contributions of our Canadian Armed Forces to protect the freedoms we cherish as Canadians.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped to make this publication possible, including the family members of the servicemen and women profiled in this book. Your support helps the Legion to continue to fulfill its role as the “Keepers of Remembrance” as well as sustain many ongoing community activities for Saskatchewan’s Veterans and their dependants.

By remembering the service and sacrifice of our Veterans, we honour the legacy of peace and freedom that they gave so selflessly.

Lest we forget.

World War II Veterans Remembered At High School Provincial Football Playoff

The Bud Weaver Memorial Trophy is awarded annually to the Saskatchewan High Schools Athletic Association's 4A Provincial Football Champion. The provincial football championship game is held every year on the second weekend in November. The championship trophy is named the Bud Weaver trophy which honors the late Bud Weaver. The 2012 championship game marked the 64th anniversary of the tribute. Bud died while serving with the RAF during World War II.

Harold (Bud) Weaver attended Bedford Road Collegiate and the University of Saskatchewan where he played as a halfback and punter with the Huskies. He also played professionally for some time following his days with the Huskies. In May 1941 at age 28, he was posted overseas. He was killed in action on September 20, 1941.

Until 1946, a provincial high school final had never been held, but in the course of a few days that November, the idea took wing. Four days before the game, Ross Pinder, a former Huskie quarterback, got together with the University of Saskatchewan coaches. They each contributed $15 toward buying a trophy to be awarded to the provincial high school football champion. In honor of Bud Weaver and other Huskies the inscription reads: In reverend memory of the members of the University of Saskatchewan Huskies who lost their lives in the Great War 1939-45.

We must remember the sacrifice of those Canadian lives lost in conflicts around the world - or it will be meaningless. They died for us, for their homes and families and friends, for a collection of traditions they cherished and a future they believed in; they died for Canada. The meaning of their sacrifice rests with our collective national consciousness; our future is their monument.

Each year, Remembrance Day is celebrated across Canada to pay tribute to the men and woman who have served our country. For Veterans, it is a day to remember and pay homage to those who did not return home from conflicts around the globe, comrades who gave their lives in support of the ideals of freedom, democracy and the right to live in peace.

Wearing a poppy and attending Nov. 11th services is a small but important way to show respect and support for veterans who have served in countries where freedom can be elusive and enemies are hard to distinguish from friends. Our world has changed, but those who serve stay remarkably the same, committed to comrades and country. On behalf of City Council and the residents of Yorkton, let's be sure "We remember them".

Sincerely,
Bob Maloney
Mayor

He joined the 1st Yorkton Light Anti-Aircraft Battery on September 27, 1939, served in Europe and Britain, and was discharged at war's end in 1945. He returned to his previous employment at Segals store in Stockholm, Saskatchewan and then began his own general store business in Atwater, Saskatchewan. Some years later, he became employed as the paymaster in the offices of International Minerals Corporation at the potash mine near Esterhazy, Saskatchewan. He and his wife, Anne, had four daughters and one son. William had been a member of the Stockholm Legion Branch 265 until he passed away on January 18, 1986.

Lest We Forget

In Flanders Fields

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae

THE FINAL INSPECTION

The soldier stood and faced God,
Which must always come to pass.

He hoped his shoes were shining,
Just as brightly as his brass.

"Step forward now, you soldier,
How shall I deal with you?

Have you always turned the other cheek?
To My Church have you been true?"

The soldier squared his shoulders and said,
"No, Lord, I guess I ain't.
Because those of us who carry guns,
Can't always be a saint.

I've had to work most Sundays,
And at times my talk was tough.
And sometimes I've been violent,
Because the world is awfully rough.

But, I never took a penny,
That wasn't mine to keep...
Though I worked a lot of overtime,
When the bills got just too steep.

And I never passed a cry for help,
Though at times I shook with fear.
And sometimes, God, forgive me,
I've wept unmanly tears.

I know I don't deserve a place,
Among the people here.
They never wanted me around,
Except to calm their fears.

If you've a place for me here, Lord,
It needn't be so grand.
I never expected or had too much,
But if you don't, I'll understand.

There was a silence all around the throne,
Where the saints had often trod.
As the soldier waited quietly,
For the judgment of his God.

"Step forward now, you soldier,
You've borne your burdens well.
Walk peacefully on Heaven's streets,
You've done your time in Hell."

selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.

Forget Them Not

We've lined their boots all in a row,
 And amongst them stand,
 The saddest scene I'll ever know,
 Goodbye dear friend, goodbye!
 Through mud and rain and battle blows,
 We cried cursed prayers,
 On blood-soaked clothes;
 And from that wound his life did flow,
 Please stay we begged, please stay!
 There is a time that soldiers know,
 When so many die,
 That the pain and woe,
 Is too much for the mind to hold;
 Roll on your drums, roll on!
 A band of brothers stand in their rows;
 The empty boots still,
 Where a life did grow,
 Our friends have gone, no more to know;
 Remember them always, remember!

THE NEVER-ENDING BATTLE

An eerie silence cloaks the night.
The world holds its breath,
Waiting for the expected clamor
Of a man whose past haunts him still.

A sudden bang puts it all into action.
A man falls into the dark abyss.
With sheets of red blotching his vision,
He tumbles helplessly to no apparent end.

Canons sound in the distance,
Paired with explosions of both triumph and loss.
Yet the worst of all is overpowering;
The sorrowful screams of comrades fallen.

The air is thick with pain and smoke,
Tears, dirt and the constant gunshot.
He fears suffocation by the smothering closeness,
And chokes again as he cries and falls.

He is overwhelmed by pain and mourning
That comes with the bravery, glory and courage.
He wonders again of his beloved wife and son,
And the knowledge that he may not return
Pounds him once more.

Thoughts of home flood his mind,
Bringing hope and sadness all at once.
He thinks of his son, toddling up to his father,
And he cries as he lays on the ground bleeding.

Amidst the noise he suddenly hears
Feet pattering on the ground,
And he knows that it must be imagined,
When he feels small hands grip his shoulder.

The smallest of nudges and shakes
Pulls him up and away from the battlefield.
He opens his eyes to glimpse his savior,
And is surprised yet relieved to see the child.

The most innocent voice breaks this newfound silence:
“Grandpa, are you having bad dreams?”
He answers his beautiful grandchild,
“Yes sweetie, but you saved me.”

Instead of the smile he had hoped to see,
He received a grave look from the small girl.
And as she took his hand she asked a simple question:
“Grandpa, what is war?”

It is the veteran

It is the veteran, not the preacher, who has given us freedom of religion.

*It is the veteran, not the reporter,
who has given us freedom of the press.*

*It is the veteran, not the poet,
who has given us freedom of speech.*

It is the veteran, not the campus organizer, who has given us freedom to assemble.

It is the veteran, not the lawyer, who has given us the right to a fair trial.

*It is the veteran, not the politician,
who has given us the right to vote.*

It is the veteran, who salutes the Flag, who serves under the Flag, Whose coffin is draped by the Flag.

We will remember them.
